

Frustrated? Need help accessing GF2 Application forms?

Unfortunately, some GF2 clients are having problems opening our fillable application forms, and as such you may have received a message similar to this:

Surprisingly, when you receive the above message, the form has been downloaded and may be found in your computer's "Downloads" folder.

Also: The following controls are available in the lower-right area of the browser window, simply scroll your mouse/pointer to that area to save the form to your computer:

Note:

Fillable application forms on this site should be opened using an Internet Explorer browser or downloaded to your computer and opened with Adobe Acrobat. There are issues with opening these forms in both the Chrome and Firefox browsers.

For more information on the fillable form/browser issue, please access the links below to the Service Alberta help page.
